Probably we wouldn't lose our temper if we didn't have one.

Wilmington furnished Washington a man who gave a good imitation of an individual gifted in the art of "robbing Peter to pay Paul."

The protected interests fully understand that the Republican party fries too much fat out of them to be unmindful and ungenerous when it comes to adopting a protective tariff bill.

It seems that the batting on the United States Senate diamond is good but Senator Aldrich as umpire refuses to count any strikes against that protective tariff.

After Congress reads the decision of the United States Supreme Court on the Hepburn bill, it will more than ever see the necessity for a correspondence school on legislation.

Huh! the Pennsylvanians needn't be going on so because a girl in that State has the power to charm a goose. Lots of North Carolina girls can make a goose out of a man.

Many a man will wonder why John C. Davis can prize 'em loose from their money when a fellow with a legitimate business proposition is given the cold shoulder.

The papers are again printing Evelyn Thaw's picture, just because she was arrested for not paying a millinery bill. Evelyn should settle herself and let us all forget her.

Nan Patterson, Evelyn Thaw, Boni DeCastellaine and Nellie Bly have again recently figured in the public eye and are likely to do so again. Poor Cassie Chadwick is dead and can't figure.

The Washington people should never again believe that the countryman is an unsuspecting and gullible guy when a crazy man can scoop in their wealth to the tune of $400,000, more or less.

When Professor Pickering goes to Washington to take stock in his $10,000,000 scheme to signal the inhabitants of Mars, the people can tell him that John C. Davis has already worked their side of the street.

Senator Aldrich has to take a whole heap and act the part of one trying to preserve his equilibrium while attempting to justify a tariff that makes the people pay a tax for manufacturers instead of for their government.

A Washington dispatch to the New York Tribune says there is a "quiet determination" in Attorney General Wickersham to bust the trusts. This is an intimation that a "quiet determination' 'is to be put up against Roosevelt's tom-tom orchestra.

AFFAIRS IN RALEIGH

Observance of Confederate Memorial Day Throughout North Carolina Was General.

CRUISE OF NAVAL RESERVES

Chief Justice Clark at Lumberton and Governor Kitchin at Fayetteville. Col. Robert E. Lee at Capital. Monument at Salisbury.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., May 10.—A formal application went today from Adjutant General J. F. Armfield, of the North Carolina National Guard, to the first assistant Secretary of the Navy for the loan of the Elfrida to the State to be used as a practice vessel for the North Carolina Naval Militia. General Armfield specifies that in the event of the loan being granted, the transfer will be made at Newbern. It is thought here that there is no doubt about the request being granted. In the event that it is there will be a practice cruise arranged for the companies constituting the Naval Militia later in the Summer.

The people of Raleigh heard with peculiar pleasure today Colonel Robert E. Lee, of Virginia, grandson of the great Confederate chieftain, deliver the address for the Memorial Day exercises. Colonel Lee is a man of fine physique and pleasing manner and his address was especially well received by the very large and representative audience. Colonel Lee's subject was "The Confederate Soldier." He paid high tribute to the personnel of the Confederate forces; their bravery and high moral standards. He dwelt on the the justice of the cause that the Confederate soldier represented and, in conclusion, paid tribute to the phenomenal prosperity of the South, a result compelled by the same persistent well directed effort of the remnant of the Confederate army and their sons, that presented to the world the spectacle of the fiercest and most effective fight against heaviest odds in the annals of warfare.

Other features of Memorial Day observance were a luncheon to the old soldiers and the decoration of the graves of the Confederate dead here. The seventy-odd old soldiers in the Soldiers Home appeared for the first time in their Confederate grey uniforms furnished to them now under act of the Legislature. The uniforms arrived only this morning by express, just in time to be worn first for the memorial exercises.

Judge Clark at Lumberton.

Lumberton, N. C., May 10.—Memorial Day was appropriately observed here. Chief Justice Walter Clark delivered the address in the Opera House which was filled to overflowing, many being unable to gain admittance. After the exercises dinner was served in the Court House to which all veterans were cordially invited. At 3 o'clock the Opera House was again packed with veterans and friends to see the war pictures which were procured by the management of the moving picture show for the occasion. The Daughters of the Confederacy under whose supervision the exercises were carried out have labored hard to make the occasion a pleasant one and they have the satisfaction of knowing that everything passed off pleasantly.

Judge Clark was the guest while in Lumberton of Colonel and Mrs. N. A. McLean. He returned to Raleigh this evening.

Bronze Group Memorial.

Salisbury, N. C., May 10.—A bronze group memorial to the Confederate soldiers of Rowan county, said to be the most expensive monument erected by any single organized body in the South, was unveiled with imposing ceremonies here today. The group was designed by F. W. Ruckstuhl, of New York and Paris.

Orations were delivered by General Bennett F. Young, of Louisville, and Mayor Boyden, of Salisbury. An original poem was recited by Christian Reid, the authoress, daughter of Colonel Charles F. Fisher, who was killed at the battle of Manassas. A numebr of prominent persons from Virginia and South Carolina were present.

Governor at Fayetteville.

Fayetteville, N. C., May 10.—Governor Kitchin today delivered an eloquent memorial address to packed audience in the LaFayette Opera House. He was eloquently introduced by Major E. J. Hale, of the Fayetteville Observer. A large crowd of veterans and citizens from the country attended the ceremonies. The Governor has for the theme of his address "The Private Soldier" and his effort was one of matchless eloquence.

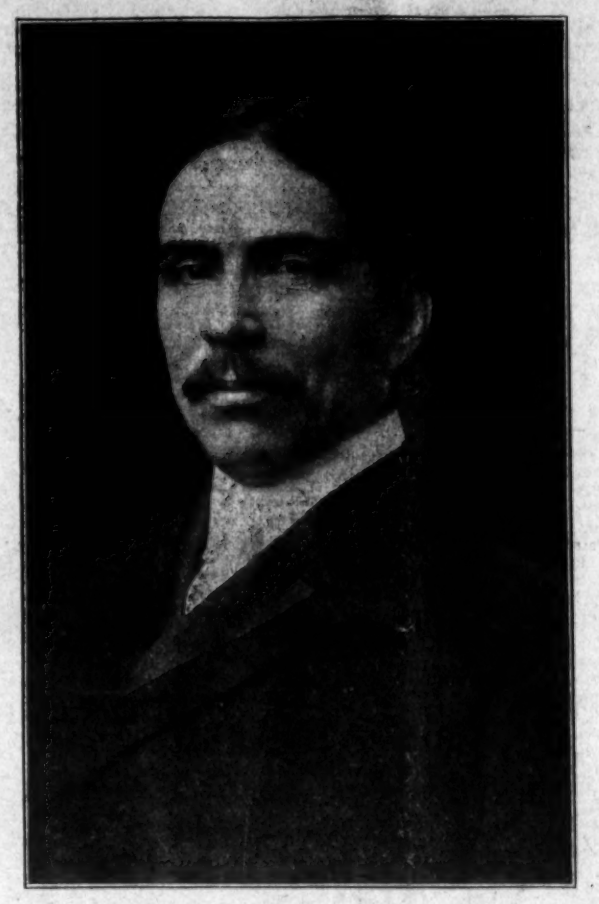
Married on Sunday Evening.

At the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Laura Gardner, No. 1011 South Front street, at 7 o'clock Sunday evening, Rev. J. S. Crowley performed a quiet but very pretty ceremony that united in marriage Miss Mabry Gardner and Mr. Deems G. Capps, a son of the late Captain R. M. Capps, and a well known young Wilmingtonian. They will make their home in this city where they have many friends.

Music at Lumina.

Music and dancing at Lumina every afternoon and evening. Cars to Lumina every half hour. 5t.

REV. FRANK H. WRIGHT



Rev. Frank H. Wright, the Indian evangelist of Dallas, Texas, who will continue his meeting through the coming week at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, is not only one of the most earnest and eloquent preachers heard in Wilmington, but is a most interesting man in many respects. His father was Rev. Allen Wright, chief of the Choctaw tribe and a minister of the Southern Presbyterian Church who who lived among his people in the territory and was their missionary for many years. The older Mr. Wright married Miss Hariet Newell Mitchell, of Dayton, Ohio, missionary of the A. B. C. F. M., and ten children were born to the union, one of which is Rev. Frank Wright. He was educated at Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., and at Union Theological Seminary, New York City. His health being poor he was elected a missionary of the Dutch Reformed Church and returned to his people, marrying Miss Addie Lil-ianthe, a beautiful and accomplished young woman of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., who joined him in taking charge of his father's church in the territory. Rev. Mr. Wright after five years recovered his health and since that time has given half his time to evangelistic work and half to home missions, serving among the cowboys of the West and the Indians of the plains. Dr. McClure, of St. Andrew's, was able to secure him only after several months' effort, to conduct the meeting in Wilmington and he is being heard with great power. He has just concluded a great meeting at the Independent Presbyterian Church, of Savannah, Ga.

INTEREST OF EDUCATION

Mass Meeting Tonight in Hall of Union School—Prominent Speakers Present—Important Conference Yesterday.

At an important conference yesterday noon between members and members-elect of the County Board of Education and members of the two school committees of Wilmington, plans for a very aggressive campaign in behalf of the schools were decided upon, the first of a series of mass meetings to be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the large assembly hall of Union School in the southern part of the city.

It is proposed to make the meeting tonight one of the most enthusiastic and most largely attended yet held in this interest and to that end, the committee has arranged for a number of prominent local speakers who will be heard with interest. The people from every part of the city, both ladies and gentlemen and school children, if they desire to come, will be heartily welcomed. The school is located right on the car line and people from any part of the city will find it convenient to attend.

The meeting yesterday was in connection with the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education at which only routine business was transacted in connection with the closing of the scholastic year. The matter of supreme importance, however, was in contemplating the situation at the beginning of the new scholastic year in the event the pending election is not carried. There will be not sufficient revenue to continue the schools for more than four or five months at most and this means that the teaching force will be entirely disorganized and that the system of graded schools built up during the past thirty years will be practically destroyed if the election is not carried. There were present yesterday Chairman George Rountree and Messrs. Wm. H. Sprunt, Donald MacRae, of the present Board of Education; Messrs. Jas. H. Chadbourn and John D. Bellamy, Jr., of the school committees, and Treasurer H. McL. Green and County Superintendent Washington Catlett.

Gratifying to Know.

It is indeed gratifying to know that The People's Savings Bank's funds are loaned at home. This is a great benefit to Wilmington and the public at large. This bank should be patronized to the fullest extent.

FOR GREATER PORT CLUB

Prominent Young Business and Professional Men Joining in Enterprise for Promotion of Wilmington Commercially.

For the purpose of organizing an active, aggressive effort for a greater port and a greater city for Wilmington, a number of the younger leading professional and business men are forming a club, which will be chartered by the Secretary of State within a week or ten days.

The idea originated with Woodus Kellum, Esq., of the local bar, who formulated an agreement for the formation of such an organization and the paper has been liberally signed by a number of leading Wilmington citizens though it is expected to interest several hundred more before the charter is applied for. It is the purpose of the promoters of the Club to open headquarters at some central point in the city and from this to direct a general campaign for the betterment of Wilmington commercially and financially. The possibilities of such a club are large and have been used with much success in other cities, notably in Charlotte. No name has as yet been given to the Club, but the title will be one to inspire enthusiasm and effort upon the part of every member. The city will be widely advertised through the Club and one of its principal features will be the attraction of capital and industries to the city. It is to be hoped that the embryo organization will continue to succeed and that ere long it will be a certainty. All who desire to connect themselves with such a club may notify Mr. Kellum at any time this week.

Sociable This Evening.

The sociable this evening by the Brotherhood of Immanuel Presbyterian church in the Kindergarten room of the church, will be an interesting event and a fine programme has been arranged. Colonel Walker Taylor will be the speaker of the evening. Refreshments will be served and the Brotherhood invites all men of the church, over 18 years of age, to attend.

Lawn Party This Evening.

The N. N. S. Society, of Fifth Street Methodist Church, will give a lawn party this evening on the lawn of the parsonage adjoining the church to which the public is invited to attend. The affair will doubtless be pleasing and delightful and refreshments will be served from several booths by the young ladies of the society. A good time is assured all who attend.

IT IS JUDGE CONNOR

North Carolina Supreme Court Justice Named For Federal Judgeship, This District.

CONFERRED WITH SENATORS

Storm Center of Interest Now Transferred to Raleigh in Connection With Appointment in This State—The Gossip.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, May 110.—The President today nominated as United States District Judge for the Eastern District of North Carolina, Henry Groves Connor, of North Carolina. The appointment was made after an interview this morning with Senators Simmons and Overman, both of whom called at the request of the President.

The vacancy of the North Carolina bench caused by the death of Judge Thomas R. Purnell has existed for some months and has been a source of much concern to President Taft. The contest for the place has been a bitter one and the Republicans of the Eastern District of North Carolina recently urged the President not to appoint a Democrat even if he had to go out of the district to find a suitable Republican for the place. The President has given more consideration to this North Carolina judgeship than to all of the other vacancies on the Federal bench with which he has had to deal since his inauguration. He has been in constant consultation with the North Carolina Senators and Representatives and has had placed before him the names of at least a dozen candidates.

Judge Connor, a Democrat, was for about ten years on the bench of the Supreme Court of North Carolina and for a number of years before that was a judge of the Superior Courts.

President Taft continues to follow his avowed policy of selecting those he considers to be the best men to fill important Federal offices, irrespective of their present faith, in sending to the Senate the nomination of Judge Connor.

Raleigh, N. C., May 10.—Positive news of the appointment of Justice Connor to the Eastern judgeship has revived the activity among the friends of Judge Allen and Biggs and Hon. J. S. Manning, who are being urged for the vacancy on the Supreme Court and telegrams are pouring into the executive office. Governor Kitchin is expected to announce his appointment within a short time now.

DEATH OF MRS. DEANS.

Occurred at Family Home in This City After a Short Illness.

Mrs. Mary C. Deans, wife of Mr. H. L. Deans, passed away yesterday morning about 10 o'clock at the family residence, No. 815 Dock street, and her death was a sad and unexpected blow to many friends in the city, who express sincere sorrow for the bereaved relatives. Mrs. Deans' illness covered a period of only a few days. The deceased was in the prime of life and was held in high regard by all with whom she was acquainted. Surviving her besides a husband, is one stepdaughter, Mrs. F. M. Hopkins, and two brothers, Messrs. J. J. E. Lucas and R. B. B. Lucas, all of this city.

The funeral will be conducted from the home this afternoon at 4 o'clock by Revs. J. A. Smith and G. A. Martin. Mrs. Deans was a consistent member of the Baptist church. The interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

Sues Companies For Salary.

A civil suit brought by R. W. Pippen against the Cape Fear Relief Association and Imperial Mutual Life & Health Insurance Company and the managers J. W. Grady and A. W. Ek, to recover $28.65, alleged to be due him for salary, was investigated in Justice Bornemann's court yesterday and decision reserved until today at noon. The matter is a complicated one, the plaintiff claiming that the deficit in his salary occurred while Mr. Grady was manager of the last named company and later he assumed charge of the other company mentioned. The suit was brought through Messrs. Pair & Woody and Herbert McClammy, Esq., represents the companies.

Officers Given Judgment.

The friendly civil action brought by Constable Savage and Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox against Officer Leon George in order to settle up differences regarding a reward, which had been paid for the capture of a fugitive, was tried before Magistrate Harriss Saturday and the plaintiffs given judgment for $25. The amount paid Officer George was $100 and the two other officers claimed two-thirds of the sum for their connection with the arrest. The matter was thoroughly threshed out before the magistrate and the decision was to award the plaintiffs the amount named.

CONFEDERATE DEAD

Memorial Day Appropriately and Most Reverently Observed Yesterday at Oakdale.

ADDRESS BY COL. ROBERTSON

General Observance by Daughters of Confederacy, Veterans, Military and Allied Organizations of Wilmington Graves.

Confederate Memorial Day was most reverently and appropriately observed in Wilmington yesterday under the auspices of Cape Fear Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, the exercises having taken place in the afternoon within the enclosure of the handsome Confederate monument in Oakdale cemetery where a large number of people assembled and participated in the ceremonies of the day.

Lowering clouds during the early afternoon threatened to seriously interfere with the exercises but toward the hour appointed for the procession to form at the lodge and move to the Confederate monument, the skies brightened and the observance was carried out most auspiciously as had been arranged. The procession formed promptly at 4:30 o'clock under the direction of Capt. John H. Hanby, chief marshal, and his aides, Comrades L. Leon, W. M. Dixon, Benj. Farrow and D. L. Gore, the Wilmington Light Infantry, in command of Capt. T. J. Gause; the Wilmington Division, North Carolina Naval Reserves, under Lieut. Cuthbert Martin commanding, and the First Battalion, Boys' Brigade of America, in command of Capt. Wilbur Dosher, heading the column. These were followed by the orator of the day, Col. Wm. F. Robertson, and the chaplain, Rev. A. D. McClure, D. D., pastor of Saint Andrew's Presbyterian Church; President Wm. H. Chadbourn and Superintendent T. Donlan, of Oakdale Cemetery, in carriages, these being followed in turn by the allied Confederate organizations of the city, Cape Fear Camp No. 254, United Confederate Veterans, in command of Gen. James I. Metts; George Davis Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, in command of Col. Walker Taylor; Cape Fear Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, and George Davis Chapter, Children of the Confederacy. The procession moved in the most perfect order to the entrance to the enclosure, the Daughters, Veterans and military passing in and occupying seats around the enclosure. The monument had been most appropriately draped with native mosses and bedecked with flowers and wreaths, Confederate flags being used most appropriately and effectively about the monument and on an improvised stand from which the exercises took place.

Capt. John H. Hanby, chief marshal, acted as master of ceremonies, performing the duties with ease and dignity, the exercises opening with a very fervent prayer by the chaplain, Dr. McClure. The orator, Col. Robertson, was presented by Capt. Hanby in most complimentary terms, and he responded in one of the neatest and most eloquent tributes paid the Confederate soldier and the Old South upon a similar occasion in many years. Col. Robertson spoke not more than fifteen minutes but his speech was elegant and most fitting an occasion of the kind. He said:

Mr. Chairman, Daughters of the Confederacy, Veterans, Ladies and Gentlemen:

Near this beautiful monument erected to the memory of the Confederate dead, on many a Memorial Day, the historian has told over the thrilling conflict story, its opening chapter at Sumter, its closing page at Appomattox. Often here have veterans who bore part in that most remarkable struggle, in the presence of these brave survivors, in memory followed Lee and Jackson on a long march back through the years to crimson dyed battlefields, picturing again the clash of arms, the grim difficulties & stubbornly opposed for four bloodstained years, the devotion of women left at home to care for children, and to wait and to pray for the absent one who had willingly placed the Right and Southland above home and life.

It is unnecessary and superfluous for one of the generation following, born after the verdict of war was rendered, to invade the domain of the historian in the presence of these veterans whose sacrifice and valor made that matchless history. The deep conviction of the necessity that directed them to take up arms in a warfare unparalleled in the history of time, the courage, devotion, and fortitude unceasingly evinced throughout that fiercest of conflicts, are known to the world, and the time is past, if it ever existed, when defense need be set forth for the part played by the South in that or any other part of the Nation's history.

Let us of today then be ever mindful of the rich heritage bequeathed this younger generation, the South of our fathers passed largely into our keeping, and the fealty it is our duty to pay in the coin of healthy citizenship and high ideals towards its honorable and useful upbuilding, if we be worthy sons of sires who loved the section of Washington, Lee, Vance and Hamilton with a devotion sacrificed and unwavering.

We may place garlands upon the graves of these immortal warriors, we may fervently eulogize the splendor of their sacrifice, but such will be only as mocking shadows if what they were and what they did, fail to arouse in our lives a certain faithful devotion to this land that they loved so well; if we do not earnestly resolve that in the future the great South shall assume that eminence of National influence and patriotic leadership, which founded the Nation and largely directed i

PROTECTION FOR THE SOUTH.

We get this from the Montgomery Advertiser:

"It is useless to deny that Democrats in both houses have shown in a number of instances a lack of consistency and devotion to principle that is not creditable to them. They denounce the Republicans in severe terms for trying to frame a tariff schedule that will favor their party friends and supporters, while some of them seem just as anxious to protect their own sections and products as they charge against the Republicans. As a matter of fact, it seems very much as if the tariff fight will degenerate into a war between sections and parties to see which shall get more benefit from it.'

Senator Simmons, of North Carolina was one of the Democratic Senators, who held out for the tariff on lumber. He justified himself by asserting that the duty on lumber was not protective but really on a revenue basis. Believing that and having good ground for it, Senator Simmons does not seem very inconsistent.

Since this country is committed to protection by an overwhelming vote placing the Republican party in power, the aim of Southern Senators should be to see that the benefit of pritection are equitably distributed. A searching investigation will show that the South gets a very small share out of protection, while thousands of industries in the North share the benefits of the tariff taxes paid by consumers. The South is a large body of consumers of products manufactured in the North, while the North furnishes practically a small number of consumers of protected Southern products. Thus the South contributes a deluge of money, through the tariff channel, to the North, and the little sent this way by Notrhern consumers is small. Where one section empties its pockets into the other, the section where the money goes will fare to the disadvantage of the other. Thus we see that the money of this country drifts in greater volume to the industrial North where protection covers a multitude of industries. With all the protection that Southern industries and products will get out of the new tariff bill the volume of benefits coming South will be infinitesinally small compared with those going to the North.

The protective tariff principle may be vicious but an unequal distribution of its benefits is still more vicious If we are going to have protection, and that is what the Republican party is determined that we shall have, Southern Representatives in Congress are not inconsistent in securing a share of it for the South. They would be an unwise set to submit to what is a totally unequal distribution of protection benefits. While the grab game is going on, we should grab some for the South.

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, recently declared that if there is to be any stealing he wanted a share of it for South Carolina. That is blunt, but it just about covers the ground, so far as the South is concerned.

OUR MINERAL RESOURCES.

That was an important assemblage at Roanoke, Va., last week when the Appalachian Engineering Association held its annual meeting. The principal object of the Association is to attract attention to and induce the development of the mineral and water power resources of the Appalachian regions, and North Carolina constitutes a large area of that region. It begins in Pennsylvania, but the Southern States embrace by far the larger area.

Among those who read valuable papers before the Association at Roanoke were Professor L. S. Randolph, of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute; Baird Halberstadt, of Pottsville, Pa.; Major William N. Page, of Washington, D. C., and Thomas L. Watson, State geologist of Virginia. Some of the papers were exceedingly valuable and we have no doubt that the efforts of the Association ultimately will result in a great development of our valuable mineral and waterpower resources. North Carolina's mineral resources are practically untouched, and immense wealth lies in store for the developers when the work begins, as it surely will some day.

By the way, the United States Geological survey has done a great work in its topographic survey of the gold, tin and copper regions of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, and the government is soon to make a survey of Southern streams with a view to locating waterpower plants, some of which are already developed and are turning millions of spindles in our cotton manufactories. The hydro-electrical development in a radius of one hundred miles of Charlotte is immense, and millions of dollars have been invested in such plants. Such development is bound to make Charlotte and the other cities within reach of this electric power, the greatest cotton manufacturing center of the South. Watch, and see if this does not come true.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY RESPONSIBLE.

The Macon Telegraph thus comments:

"Referring to Mr. Carnegie's statement that an income tax would encourage perjury, Senator Borah, of Idaho, says: "Mr. Carnegie did not make the Republican party and I wish I was just as sure that the Republican party did not make Mr. Carnegie." The Republican party (and the tariff) made Carnegie and Rockefeller and the rest of them, all right. That Mr. Borah, a Republican Senator, wishes it hadn't, is a good sign."

In a campaign, however, when the Democrats charge that the Republican party makes such men as Mr. Carnegie, or at any rate, makes them multi-millionaires by taxing the people for their benefit, the Republicans are quick to deny it, and try to prove that the captains of industry are the architects of their own fortune. In the heat of debate, however, the truth sometimes comes out, as when Senator Borah so bluntly let the cat out of the bag. Most of us could make money if the people were levied on for tribute to help our business.

ALL VACANCIES LOOK ALIKE.

The Raleigh News and Observer observes:

"One thing is certain; if Mr. Taft should cause a vacancy on the Supreme Court bench, the ermine will not have to go out looking for shoulders upon which to rest. There are those who will be ready to receive it."

The receptive brigade is large and Republicans and Democrats belong to it, caring not whether a vacancy is to be filled by a Democratic Governor or a Republican President. All vacancies look alike to the man who wants an office.

The Democratic candidate for mayor of Raleigh was a Wynne-r.

Senator Aldrich is steadfast in his belief that he can yet harmonize the Republican party on the tariff bill. If he succeeds, he can have a big vote for chief umpire for the settlement of matrimonial disagreements that arose about the time the honeymoon was in its first quarter.

Representative Hollingsworth, of Ohio, who recently gnashed the bit because Jeff Davis' picture was placed on the silver service to be presented to the battleship Mississippi, might further demonstrate his voraciousness by eating up the lead schedule of the tariff bill.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—When Washingtonians saw both the President and Vice President at the big baseball game eating peanuts out of a paper bag they ceased to despair of the Republic.—Mexican Herald.

—Some of those people who opposed Mr. Kitchin for the gubernatorial nomination on the ground that he would stir things up too much are now complaining because he is too quiet and has too little to say.—Raleigh News and Observer.

—There are queer kinks in some people's human nature. The man who so much loves the credit of contributing generously to good causes that he steals money for the purpose is far from rare. It was rather an unusual story of this nature, however, which The Observer printed about a former Wilmington man's doings yesterday.—Charlotte Observer.

—This is the South 44 years after Appomattox. The men of the old South went to their homes after the surrender and set to work in grim earnest. They laid the foundations of restoration firmly and deeply. Their sons and grandsons have carried on the work with intelligence, energy and efficiency. Today the South is the most American part of this Union of 46 States. There are no outward evidences of the havoc and ruin wrought by four years of civil conflict. The economic regeneration of the South is one of the most amazing achievements of modern times. Aided substantially as it has been by other sections, the general result is, nevertheless, an enduring monument to the invincible spirit and the inflexible determination of the men who many years ago at Appomattox accepted the results of war in good faith, and, guided by the wise counsels of their leader, General Lee, buckled down to work on the farms and in business and in the professions in the spirit of brave and true men. Peace hath its victories no less renowned than war. One of the finest pages in the history of the United States is that which records the work of Southern men and women after Appomattox.—Newport (R. I.) Herald.

For Strength

The Supreme Court Says

in a recent decision about female labor: "The two sexes differ, in structure of body, in the functions to be performed by each, in the amount of physical strength, in the capacity for long-continued labor, etc."

It follows that female weakness, due to these differences in body structure and functions, requires some certain medicine to hit the right spot and that Cardui, the medicine for women, is more likely to be the right thing for women to take, when sick, than a medicine recommended for the two sexes alike.

Try Cardui, for female pain, irregularity, weakness, or misery. It is a specific female remedy, especially recommended for the diseases peculiar to the female sex, a medicine that, in the past 50 years, has benefited over a million—WOMEN.

Try Cardui. Sold everywhere.

destiny during the century preceding the Civil war.

The South must and is splendidly coming to its own, and in clean and earnest civil purpose, its voice shall again call aloud the dangers that beset the Nation; its steady hand shall guide the Ship of State from civic threatenings to a safe haven; its wise counsel shall mightily aid the construction of the Nation of the future.

As great as was the part played in that conflict, the subsequent conduct of the Southern soldier and his loved ones in their desolated homes was even braver, sweeter and stronger. Practically all save honor having been lost, inspired by a commendable pride that asked no favors, and a grit that war and defeat had not lessened, he began life over again.

For four soul-trying years he had gloriously rushed into the hell of many a battlefield with the shouts of comrades and the thrill of "Dixie" ringing in his ears. This after-fight of rehabilitation was lonely and still in a land of ashes and buried hopes. Yet, the dark reconstruction days saw no wavering. This struggle to rebuild the South was woman's battle as truly as man's, and the inspiration of her love, hope, encouragement and prayers, never yet failed to find response in the Southern heart. In '61 as the tragedy opened, the Southerner went forth to fight for the land of his hopes and dreams. In '65, as the curtain rang down, he bowed his brave head and accepted the land as God willed it should be. His acceptance of that decree, and earnest determination to make the best of it, stand unparalleled as the bravest, least embittered submission to the divine decree ever recorded. With no questioning, without murmur, the edict that the Eternal God had published through the arbitrament of war, was accepted, and the men and women of this Southland together bravely, silently, hand in hand went forward out of the dying embers of war and desolation to build up for the generations to come all, and more, than war had taken from them. And wonderfully have they succeeded. A grievous struggle in many ways, this rebuilding a war-devastated land, yet steadily onward and upward, conquerors, and more than conquerors! No Appomattox in this second conflict! All victory that their children, that those of this first generation, and of generations to come, would be born into a South of splendid possibilities, might find homes blossoming with contentment and beneficence; a land purified by fire, moving steadily into the future, progressive and undaunted.

How then, can we best show gratitude to that brave generation which lived through such momentous times; who, with all swept away; in less than a full lifetime, have rebuilt so splendidly? By showing the same loyalty to the duty call as did they; by evincing a faithfulness to home and right, as did they; by telling again and again the wonderful story that these veterans made. Pass it proudly down from generation to generation that it may awake the better and braver impulses of those who hear. Wonderful epoch, wonderful history, wonderful veterans! The dim gray line is passing into the mists. Lee and thousands of brave comrades have quietly reported to the headquarters of eternal glory. On they come, not so steady, the line fast thinning. Hats off! Bow the head! The Southern veteran is passing. Let "Dixie" ring out, its strains thrilling to its depths the Nation's heart, until in a new generation its inspiring music shall sweep the soldiers of a united country on to mighty victories. Let the old soldier's story, with its beauty and its splendor be told over and over again as an inspiration to sacrifice and to duty, and each Memorial Day for all time to come, led by the noble women of the South, let garlands be lovingly placed upon the graves of these heroes whose deeds and fame belong to the glories of the ages.

"Cover them over with beautiful flowers,
Deck them with garlands, these brothers of ours,
Lying so silent by night and by day,
Sleeping the years of their manhood away—
Years they had marked for the joys of the brave—
Years they must waste in the Sloth of the grave.
Cover them over, yes, cover them over,
Parent and brother and husband and lover;
Shrine in your heart these dead heroes of ours,
And cover them over with beautiful flowers."

Col. Robertson was given the warmest applause and evidences of high appreciation of his splendid address by the large audience assembled.

Following the address Capt. Hanby read with much effect the roll of honored dead whose remains repose in beautiful Oakdale and in whose honor the memorial exercises are especially held, many of the descendants of those of sainted memory being present for the ceremonies. The hymns were rendered by a special quartette composed of Messrs. R. G. Rankin, Jr., Greene Fenley, Richard Womersley and J. B. Fenley, "Soldiers of Christ, Arise" having been sung at the conclusion of the reading of the roll.

According to the beautiful custom of the Daughters of the Confederacy, Crosses of Honor were presented to a number of Veterans who were not present on January 19th to receive these tokens. Following the presentation of these Crosses, the audience joined in singing the doxology and the benediction was pronounced by Dr. McClure.

The exercises came to a fitting close with the firing of a salute by each of the military companies and the sounding of taps by Buglers Albert Dosher and T. K. Curtis, of the Boys' Brigade.

Before returning to the city the Wilmington Light Infantry proceeded to the grave of their late comrade, J. Frank Maunder, of the Reserve Corps, who passed away since last Memorial Day, and a military salute was fired over his grave. The same honor was paid to the lamented Col. F. W. Foster by the Naval Reserves, Col. Foster having been a life-long member and friend of the Division.

The music for the marching was by a drum corps composed of Messrs. John T. Yates and Frank P. Turrentine.

The day was marked by a general suspension of business during the afternoon and the people of the city turned out in large numbers to participate in the beautiful exercises.

"If ever I need a cough medicine again I know what to get," declares Mrs. A. L. Alley, of Beals, Me., "for, after using ten bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, and seeing its excellent results in my own family and others, I am convinced it is the best medicine made for Coughs, Colds and lung trouble.' Everyone who tries it feels just that way. Relief is felt at once and its quick cure surprises you. For Bronchitis, Asthma, Hemorrhage, Croup, LaGrippe, Sore Throat, pain in chest or lungs it's supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

Lincoln's Rule For Living

"Do not worry, eat three square meals a day, say your prayers, be courteous to your creditors, keep your digestion good, exercise, go slow and go easy. Maybe there are other things that your special case requires to make you happy, but, my friend, these, I reckon, will give you a good lift."

Follow Lincoln's words of wisdom and keep your digestion good. When you have dyspepsia, indigestion or any form of stomach trouble you can eat what you want and eat heartily if you take Kodol. Starvation seems a strange remedy for any disease; yet starvation by vigorous diet was once generally resorted to in case of indigestion or other stomach trouble. Even yet it is sometimes tried. Such a remedy is worse than useless.

When the stomach cannot do its work the task must be performed for the stomach. Kodol is the only preparation that does this. Any one who wants a healthy stomach can have it. Merely take care of the stomach when it is working properly and take Kodol when it commences to go wrong. Kodol will find the weak spot. Kodol is the one substitute which accomplishes Nature's results by Nature's one method. Every tablespoonful of Kodol digests 2¼ pounds of food.

Our Guarantee. Get a dollar bottle of Kodol. If you are not benefited—the druggist will at once return your money. Don't hesitate; any druggist will sell you Kodol on these terms. The dollar bottle contains 2½ times as much as the 50c bottle. Kodol is prepared in the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

ST. ANDREW'S MEETING

Large Congregations Heard Rev. Frank H. Wright Sunday.

The able sermons of Rev. Frank H. Wright at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church Sunday, were heard by large congregations at both services and the meeting is proving most successful and interesting. There will be quite a few accessions to the church when the services are concluded.

The congregation at the evening service was particularly large and Rev. Mr. Wright preached an appealing and convincing sermon, with strong and practical illustrations. The services are made more attractive by the splendid singing of the evangelist. The services will continue throughout this week, with a sermon each evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Wright.

Last night Mr. Wright was heard by a large congregation upon the theme, "The Judgment," those who heard him being deeply affected. Tonight he will speak on the subject, "What it Costs to be be a Christian" and the public is most cordially invited. This afternoon there will also be a service at 4 o'clock with a prayer meeting before each service in which all are asked to join in. Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock Rev. Mr. Wright will hold an especial service for the young people. Sunday afternoon in the Academy of Music there will be a mass meeting especially for men though all will be welcomed.

YOUTHFUL CRIMINALS.

Two Negro Boys Convicted of Store-breaking—Recorder's Court.

The Recorder tried William Henry Johnson and Langston Henderson, two negro boys, aged 12 and 14, respectively, on charges of store-breaking at the session of court yesterday and the two were convicted, the elder being given 12 months and the younger six months on the county roads. They were caught in the act of robbing the store of Wm. H. Moore, the colored newsdealer on Grace street, between Water and Front, shortly after 8 o'clock Sunday morning by a colored man named Taylor, who works at the place. It seems that they had made previous attempts to break in the same store and the younger defendant was guilty of a similar offense on Thursday of last week. They affected an entrance by raising a window, but failed to secure anything in their attempt at robbery. Taylor had secreted himself in the store and when they came in he nabbed them and turned them over to Officer C. G. Jones.

DR. L. L. NASH.

Gives Up His Work Reluctantly and Goes to Greensboro to Recuperate.

Many friends of Dr. L. L. Nash, of the North Carolina Conference, who has gone to Greensboro to spend some time with relatives ,will read with regret and interest the following from the Raleigh Christian Advocate of this week:

"We regret to announce that Dr. L. L. Nash has been compelled on account of the state of his health to give up his work—Gibson Circuit. After spending a while in the hospital some time ago, he felt himself justified in returning to his work. But a new complication arose and under the advice of his physician he has given up his work. To a brave, active and useful preacher, such as Dr. Nash has been, such a step is a very painful one, wringing the very heart. He may be comforted, however, with the thought that his life record is a noble one, that he has the deepest sympathies and most earnest prayers of all his brethren, that the Father always provides, and that He will ever make all things work together for good to his servants."

ROCKINGHAM POWER CO.

The Theatre

The Palace yesterday made good its claim that the present week's bill would be one of the best it has ever offered. It is also one of the best for novelty and variety. It may well be called an all-star bill, because there is not even a mediocre feature in the offering. Tendehoa, the Indian wonder, and especially known as the "man with the iron jaw," is one of the most popular features, and his feats of strength and demonstration of a muscular jaw are really surprising, as well as entertaining. He was accorded vigorous applause. The well known comedy sketch team of Fox and De-May is another big star act and presents a laughable sketch that is away from other acts of this class seen at the Palace. Fox, who is the champion buck-and-wing dancer, also does some splendid terpsichorean work. Denicke, the negro comedian and musical artist, is also doing a big act. He has special and pretty stage settings. Miss Jennie DeWeese, soubrette and banjoist, is likewise clever and a favorite.

Big Bill at the Bijou.

One of the big features at the Bijou this afternoon and evening will be "Mephisto and the Maiden," one of Selig's latest and most sensational films. The other feature film today will be "A Burglar's Mistake," a thrilling story of an attempt at blackmail. These subjects will be among the best shown at the Bijou this season and no patron shoud neglect the opportunity of seeing them.

At The LeGrand.

Four good subjects will be offered at the LeGrand today, these being as follows: "Northern Schoolmaster," "How They Proposed," "Before and After" and "Automatic Monkey." There will also be a fine illustrated song.

Hancock, representing the four subordinate lodges of the city, are leaving for Charlotte where they will attend this week the 66th annual session of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., which will be called to order this evening and remain in session through Thursday. It is expected that there will be 300 officers and representatives in attendance from the various lodges throughout the State. The Charlotte people have laid great plans for entertaining the visitors on this occasion and the sessions promise to be most pleasant. It is expected that Deputy Grand Master P. H. Williams, of Elizabeth City, will be elected Grand Master at this session and that the next Grand Lodge meeting will be at Goldsboro upon the dedication of the N. Jacobi Memorial Home. The Patriarch Militant Branch of the order and the Daughters of Rebekah are expected to take a prominent part in the Charlotte meeting.

HANDSOME YACHT ON TRIAL

Splendid Craft for Mr. E. Schulken Develops Much Speed.

The first of the eleven handsome racing yachts for use at Wrightsville Beach this Summer and being built by Captain Young at the old power station, Front and Orange streets, has been given her trial trip on the river and she has developed wonderful speed. The first of the yachts was drawn by Mr. E. Schulken, of Hanover Seaside and Atlantic Yacht clubs, and her owner is delighted with her. She is a trim and as neat as can be and on the river has outdistanced all oncomers in both calm and choppy weather. It is not improbable that a series of races will be arranged in the harbor here before the yachts are taken to the beach and if so, some great sport may be expected.

J. HICKS BUNTING'S UNUSUAL OFFER.

"It isn't often that we have faith enough in the medicine put up by other people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said J. Hicks Bunting to a Wilmington man who had dropped into their store, "but we are glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that basis.

"The Dr. Howard Company, in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorizes us to sell their regular fifty cent bottles at half price, 25 cents and, although we have sold a lot of it, and have guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory.

"There are sixty doses in a vial that can be carried in the vest pocket or purse, and everyone has more medicinal power than a big pill or tablet or a tumbler of mineral water.

"We are still selling the specific at half price, although we cannot tell how long we shall be able to do so, and anyone who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played-out condition, ought to take advantage of this chance."

VICTORY FOR PROTECTION

Lead Schedule Adopted by Vote of Forty-four to Thirty-five.
(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, May 10.—After several hours consideration of the lead schedule in the Senate today, during which remarks were made by a number of Senators, Mr. Cummins' amendment reducing the duty on pig lead from 2 1-8 to 1 7-8 cents a pound and the differential from 5-8 cents as recommended by the Committee on Finance to 3-8 cents per pound, was lost by a vote of 35 to 44.

There was much interest in the vote, as it was considered a test of the strength of the Republican insurgents. Of the 35 votes cast for the amendment, 11 were cast by Republican Senators, but they were not sufficient. The committee won with four votes to spare. Senators Hughes, Colorado; and McEnery, Louisiana, Democrats, voted against the amendment.

Referring, in the debate preceeding the vote to the criticism which he said had been heaped upon certain Senators, Mr. Nelson said he was tired of being lectured about the schedules of the bill and the orthodoxy of the Republican party. "Let us recognize the fact," he said, "that the tariff bill is just like the rivers and harbors bill. You tickle me and I'll tickle you. You give us what we want on the Pacific coast for our lead ore and our citrus fraits and we will tickle the people of New England and give them what they want on their cotton goods." But he said, the people who stood between those two elements were being ground between the upper and lower millstones. "We are willing, however, he exclaimed, "to accept reasonable reductions on our products, but how is it with the rest of you?"

At the conclusion of the session, Chairman Aldrich stated that he regarded the vote as an endorsement of the action of the committee, and he expressed confidence that all the schedules of the committee would be upheld.

ROOSEVELT KILLS BIG BEAST.

Brought Down Rhinoceros That Was Charging Him.
(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Nairobi, British East Africa, May 10—A bulky bull rhinoceros is the latest prize wrested from the jungle by Colonel Roosevelt. From the ex-President's camp near Machakos word was brought down today that the luck of the Roosevelt party continues and that 15 varieties of game, including the big rhino, have been bagged on the last expedition. The rhino was charging Mr. Roosevelt when the hunter fired. The distance was 14 paces, and the animal fell dead.

The naturalists of the party are kept busy preparing the trophies which Mr. Roosevelt and his son Kermit are bringing in daily. Forty-five skins already have been prepared for the Smithsonian Institution at Washington.

The Norfolk, Va., naval station was inspected yesterday by Secretary of the Navy Meyer. He came here aboard the dispatch boat Dolphin yesterday.

A Delicate Test.

Oysters are more susceptible to outside odors and flavors than anything else one can think of. It is therefore interesting to note the following testimonial from one of the most prominent chefs in Birmingham, Ala. He writes:

"I have used Cottolene for a number of years with the best results, and find it the most economical frying fat I have ever used. I have fried on an average of 2,000 oysters a day for the most select trade in Birmingham, with the best results. It satisfies my trade, and I would use nothing else."

Cottolene is positively neutral in flavor. Articles fried in it have not that greasy, oily taste so often found when lard is used.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Fayetteville Observer, May 7th:—The house of Mr. George Hudson, a new tenement in northwest Fayetteville, was destroyed by fire about 8 o'clock yesterday morning. With the assistance of the neighbors most of the furniture was saved, but the house was a total loss.

—Newbern, May 9.—The new city officials who were elected on Tuesday have been sworn in and have taken charge of the city's affairs. They elected Mr. C. J. McCarthy, major; J. J. Tolson, tax collector; F. T. Patterson, city clerk; D. W. Roberts, treasurer, and John C. Thomas, Jr., collector for the water and light department. The present board will continue the city improvements now in progress and stand for further improvements.

—Newbern, May 9.—Today's issue of the morning paper, The Newbern Journal, is printed on paper manufactured at the plant of the Carolina Paper & Pulp Mills, located at Newbern. The paper is about the usual grade of newspaper and shows up very well for the new plant. The capacity of the plant when in full operation will be from 75 to 100 tons per day. It will be some time before it will be in full operation although quite a force of men are already at work in the plant.

—Charlotte News: Six hundred United States flags arrived in Charlotte this morning and will be distributed at once for decoration purposes. They are all sizes, ranging from 2x4 to 10x20 feet. A large number of the flags will be used by the decoration committee. They will be placed on top of the white monuments and arranged in profusion along the streets. What remains will be disposed of to whoever wants them for decorating buildings.

—Newbern, May 9.—A negro named Heidelburg was drowned in the Trent river about two miles from Newbern on Friday. He was in a small boat with another boy and to frighten the boy, rocked the boat until it was full of water and about to sink. He then jumped in the water to swim to a raft but never reached it. The small boy clung to the boat until rescued. Heidelburg's body was found yesterday. He was about 21 years old and was an employe of one of the lumber companies.

—Winston Sentinel: The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company has definitely decided to erect another mammoth manufacturing plant. It will be located just south of the company's old factory on Chestnut street. A portion of the latter lot and the Miller lot, recently purchased from Mr. H. Montague, will be utilized. The proposed building will be constructed of brick and standard mill construction throughout. It will be four stories in height in front and five in the rear, the size being 120 feet on Chestnut street, extending back 288 feet.

—Durham Sun: Next week will be an exceedingly busy one about the court house. It is to be court week and Judge Long and Solicitor Fuller will find 190 cases on the docket when they arrive here. This number will probably be increased by the addition of other cases. On the docket there are six defendants who are charged with capital crimes—crimes that will send them to the electric chair if proved. Five of these are for murder and one for burglary. All six of the defendants are in jail. There are several others wanted on similar charges but they have made good their escape.

—Asheville, N. C., May 8.—Vance Guest, a young white man about town, who, sometime ago, "just for fun," passed a counterfeit dollar, was tried before Judge Boyd in United States District Court this morning, convicted and sentenced by the court to serve one year and one day in the Federal prison at Atlanta. A day or two prior to Guest's arrest he was showing a counterfeit dollar, a very poor specimen, and at one time, just for fun, passed it on a "cop." The officer told Guest that he had better throw the thing away; that it would get him into trouble. A little later Guest again passed the dollar, this time on a restaurant keeper, and failed to redeem it. The arrest followed.

—Richmond, Va., May 8.—Judge Jeter C. Pritchard, sitting today in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the eastern district of North Carolina, entered a decree in the case of the S. Morgan Smith Company, complainant, vs. Rockingham Power Company and Knickerbocker Trust Company, defendants, ordering the sale of the properties of the Rockingham Power Company, said sale to take place on the 14th day of July, at Wadesboro, N. C. This sale is for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the Rockingham Power Company. William H. Brown and W. A. Leland, the receivers of the Rockingham Power Company, were appointed commissioners to make the sale. It is said that several million dollars are involved. Judge Pritchard also entered a decree authorizing the receivers to borrow a sum not exceeding $10,000 to pay the obligations maturing in the necessary work of protecting the property during the time that may elapse before the sale of the property. The decree also authorizes the receivers to issue certificates representing the indebtedness, said certificates taking precedence as a lien on the property of the Rockingham Power Company in preference and in priority to any other indebtedness, obligation or lien now existing against said property.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

eNw York, May 10.—The cotton market was nervous and irregular today without being more than moderately active and with fluctuations comparatively narrow. The close was steady net two points lower to four points higher. May being lower and other months about 1 to 4 points higher.

The market opened steady at a decline of 4 points on May, but generally 1 to 2 points higher and during the early session sold up to a net advance of 3 to 6 points on rather steadier cables than expected, reports that the Texas rains over Sunday had been too light to be of much assistance, bullish private crop reports from parts of Mississippi and continued reports of improvements in trade circles. Increased operations of May, which were supposed to be against cotton to come here for delivery before the end of the month checked the upward movement during the forenoon and prices gradually eased off under these offerings realized by old longs and local bear pressure.

May sold off from 10.65 to 10.57 and later positions eased to within a point or two of Saturday's finals. At this level there was a renewal of demand promoted by the forecast for frost in parts of the eastern belt, but after working up to a net gain of 6 to 8 points on the active positions, there was another set-back on reports that the price of printed calicos had been reduced half a cent a yard by one of the leading manufacturers on the ground that trade was slow and stocks were accumulating. Last prices were within a point or two of the lowest. Southern spot markets officially reported were generally unchanged.

Receipts at the ports today 15,275 bales, against 11,287 last week and 6,864 last year; for the week 100,000 bales against 114,887 last week and 50,906 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 4,798 against 2,295 last year, and at Houston 4,145 against 947 bales last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 10.90; middling gulf 11.15; sales 2,700 bales. Futures opened and closed steady.

LIVERPOOL MARKET.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Liverpool, May 10.—Cotton: Spot quiet, prices unchanged; American middling fair 6.14; good middling 5.78; middling 5.58; low middling 5.40; good ordinary 5.11; ordinary 4.75.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 10.—The American Printing company has reduced its line of printed wash goods half cent a yard to 4 3-4c and other printers have followed. Business in the late afternoon was much better than it has been for some time. Cutters are duplicating orders for dress goods for fall. Buyers are trying to purchase staple dress goods for spring 1910. Prices are fluctuating in the raw silk market. The general jobbing trade was better at the opening than it was a week ago, more favorable weather condition being assigned as a cause.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, May 10.—There was considerable falling off in speculative interest and activity in the stock market today. Without any preference in the reversal in the tone operators were less disposed to accept the lead offered by the bidding up of special stocks. Prices reacted more positively in the final dealings. Thus hesitation found its explanation in the speculative position in the market itself rather than in any developments in the news. News developments were in fact favorable. The professional speculative element has grown suspicious that well informed interests have been feeding out holdings of stocks at the recently prevailing levels, prompted by satisfaction with present prices and distrust of promised further advances. The small vibration in prices of former speculative leaders while new stocks are being advanced is cited as evidence of this process going on in the market. This condition was corrected, to some extent, by the diversion of strength to some of the granger railroad stocks. This movement was based on the improving chances believed to be resulting for grain crops on favoring weather. The fresh return from Europe of a capitalist of large influence in them, was supposed to be associated with the movement in the Rock Island stocks and certain industrials.

Lending rates for fixed periods were marked up again today in the money market. In connection with the hardening prospect for money rates, the bond market was narrow today although prices did not suffer from the diminished demand.

Total sales, par value, $5,358,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales 790,900 shares.

FINANCIAL MARKET.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR KIDNAPPER

Full Penalty of Law Meeted Out to James H. Boyle Yesterday.

WIFE GETS TERM 25 YEARS

Boyle Makes Confession, Declaring That Harvey Foraker Instigated Crime to Cover Up Murder—Secured Money.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Mercer, Pa., May 10.—James Boyle was sentenced today to life imprisonment in the penitentiary for kidnapping "Billy" Whitla. Mrs. Boyle received a sentence of 25 years, with a fine of $5,000 and the costs of the prosecution. Boyle did not create the scene in court he had threatened. Sheriff Chess started with Mr. and Mrs. Boyle for the western penitentiary at Pittsburg this afternoon.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 10.—James H. Boyle and his wife, Helen Boyle, were lodged in the western penitentiary here tonight, the former under a sentence of life imprisonment, the latter sentenced to serve a term of 25 years.

The prisoners were taken first to a side room to say good-bye, as the rules of the prison would not permit them to see each other again. Mrs. Boyle threw her arm around "Jimmy's" neck and kissed him. She said: "We must take it the best we can."

The matron escorted Mrs. Boyle from the room. She burst into tears and asked to be permitted once again to see her husband. The request was granted and she again kissed and embraced Boyle. When Mrs. Boyle gave her belongings to the matron she asked permission to keep a small mirror she carried, saying, "I do not want to leave it behind as that would make me have seven years of bad luck." The mirror was returned to her and she will be allowed to keep it in her cell.

Boyle and his wife sat together and held each other's hands during the entire journey here from the scene of their trial.

Sheriff Chess said he was glad to get the prisoners out of his custody as he was afraid they would be successful in their announced intention to commit suicide. The sheriff stated he believed Boyle had intended to kill his wife and then commit suicide with a razor the sheriff found in the kidnapper's tie today. Neither prisoner would deny that this was true.

It has been decided tonight, so far as Mrs. Boyle is concerned at least, that no appeal will be asked for.

The severity of the sentences imposed upon the pair appalled Mercer where it was pronounced. Both prisoners collapsed in court upon being sentenced, and had to be carried from the room. Hardly had they reached their cells when word was given out that the woman had taken poison during last night and had narrowly escaped death at her own hand, and that a razor had been found concealed in Boyle's clothing. Before this thrill had lost its force, Boyle gave out his statement implicating Harry Foraker, brother of Mrs. Whitla, in the kidnapping case. In Mercer and Sharon the story does not seem to be generally credited and as the district attorney has no faith in it, there is little likelihood of any formal action in the matter.

Sharon, Pa., May 10.—All Sharon was astonished today when the statement was made by James Boyle implicating Harry Foraker in the Whitla kidnapping and using his name in connection with an alleged murder in Youngstown. Mr. Forker declared the intimations, although without the slightest foundation, were not new to him, as he had understood for some time such a statement was threatened. Mr. Whitla was greatly vexed. He pronounced the whole story a malicious falsehood.

Janitor Sloss of the school from which "Billy" Whitla was taken, insists still that Boyle was the man who called for the boy and took him away in the buggy.

SCHEDULE OF RAILROADS

Trunk Lines Combine to Monopolize Coal Production.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, May 10.—A comprehensive history of the organization and operation of various coal companies in Ohio and West Virginia and their merging into one company, which is alleged to be controlled by a syndicate of railroad companies, is given in a report made to Congress today by the Inter-State Commerce Commission.

The Trunk Lines syndicate consists of the Pennsylvania, the Baltimore and Ohio, The New York Central, the Zanesville and Western, the Kanawha and Michigan, the Wheeling and Lake Erie, the Chesapeake and Ohio, and the Norfolk and Western.

A great part of the report is taken up with a description of the manner in which the various coal companies and the railroad companies in this region finally were merged into the Sunday Creek Company.

It seemed to the Commission, a long consideration of the mergers and manipulations described in the report, that the railroad companies by various devices sought to discourage the further development of coal mines in Ohio and the West Virginia territory. The Commission says that the interest of the railroad officials in their coal companies and the guaranty by the railways of the bonds of the coal companies furnished an incentive to discourage further development of coal mines, and so far as possible to retain to these coal companies a monopoly of the coal transported by these railroads.

JOHN C. DAVIS HELD

Plea of Insanity May be Later Urged. Receiver For His Building and Loan Association—Bond Required.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, May 10.—John C. Davis, the Washington lawyer charged with obtaining by false pretense a large amount of money variously estimated up to a half million dollars and Martin T. Davis, his brother, secretary of the Potomac Building & Loan Association, were today held for the grand jury under bonds of $20,000 and $5,000 respectively.

A larger amount was fixed for the attorney because of the charges of embezzlement and conspiracy to defraud against him. The charges of conspiracy was the only one against his brother, Martin.

A petition for receivership for the Potomac Building & Loan Association was filed in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia by attorneys for creditors of the concern.

Assistant District Attorney Proctor examined a large number of men and women who had entrusted various sums to the men under arrest and who are now anxious to learn what has become of their money.

The preliminary hearing was continued until May 15th. Martin T. Davis was released on bail but John C., was unable to secure bondsmen and he was sent back to the police station.

Acting on the petition for a receivership Justice Barnard in equity court appointed W. Mosby Williams receiver of the building and loan association fixing his bond at $10,000. The petitioners were Alice B. Duncan, who said she invested $4,986, and Carrie J. Pritchard and Mary V. Pritchard, who said they gave Davis $280 and $1,180 respectively. They assert that John C. Davis was intimately connected with the association of which his brother was secretary and general manager and that Martin permitted his brother John to carry a large number of pass books of the association. John Davis, they alleged, solicited money from a number of investors, pretending to be able to return them large profits, and, when pressed for settlements, would deliver to them passbooks showing special deposits to the credit of the investors.

William E. Ambrose, counsel for the Davis brothers, said tonight that no outline of defense had yet been made. He added that a commission probably would be asked for after the preliminary hearing to inquire into the mental condition of John C. Davis. The latter assured him today, he affirmed that his brother knew nothing of his transactions and that all of their business dealings were between themselves as individuals.

THE HAINS MURDER TRIAL

Fate of Army Officer Will be in Hands of Jury Today—Pathetic and Dramatic Plea for His Life. The Argument.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Flushing, N. Y., May 10.—One hour more of summing up by the prosecution and afterward the court's charge—then the case of Captain Peter C. Hains, Jr., charged with the murder of William E. Annis will pass into the hands of the jury. This, in brief, is the schedule that the trial of the young army officer is expected to follow tomorrow.

Today's session of the court was marked by the final appeal by John F. McIntyre for the defense and part of the final plea of George A. Gregg for the prosecution. When adjournment was taken late this afternoon, Justice Garrelson announced that he would allow Mr. Gregg just an hour tomorrow in which to complete his remarks. The court then will immediately charge the jury, and, as the charge will consume about an hour, Captain Hains should be in the hands of the jury shortly after noon.

While Mr. McIntyre's address was basically an argument to show the insanity of his client, nevertheless he seized every opportunity to emphasize the dramatic and pathetic and to hint at times at the "unwritten law." One of his melodramatic declarations was that Annis met death by an "act of God." All references to the "unwritten law" were promptly objected to by the prosecution and the objections were sustained.

The former district attorney bitterly denounced the insanity plea of the defense, declaring that it was conceived and manufactured by the defendant's lawyers as a last resort. He branded the shooting as a cowardly murder, committed with deliberation and premeditation.

PHILIPPINE TARIFF BILL.

Export Duties on Hemp, Tobacco and Other Products.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, May 10.—The principal changes made by the House Committee on Ways and Means in the Philippine tariff bill are explained in the report submitted to the House today by Representative Payne, of New York. It stated that the new tariff for the islands becomes necessary on acount of the free trade provisions of the Payne bill, which will deprive the insular government of about $1,000,000 of revenue.

The export duties on Manila hemp, copra, tobacco, sugar and shells, which yielded a revenue of $743,988 in 1908, are re-enacted in the new bill, although Mr. Payne states, an export duty is foreign to the policy of the government of the United States and is prohibited by the constitution.

The Florida House today decided to reconsider the Beard disfranchisement joint resolution which limited the franchise in Florida "to white male" citizens. The re-hearing was set for May 19th.

ALL FOUND GUILTY IN TRUST CASE

Jury Rendered Verdict In Naval Stores Case in Savannah Last Night.

GOVERNMENT WINS ITS CASE

Case Has Been in Progress for Several Weeks—Lawyers For Both Sides Summed Up Yesterday. Judge's Charge.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Savannah, Ga., May 10.—"Guilty" was the verdict brought in late tonight by the grand jury in the case of the so-called "turpentine trust" though peculiarly, the names of the two indicted corporations are omitted and the verdict applies only to the five individual defendants, E. S. Nash, president of the American Naval Stores Co.; Spencer P. Shotter, chairman of its board of directors; George Meade Boardman, of New York, its treasurer, and Carl Moller, of Jacksonville, manager of the National Transportation & Terminal Co. The sixth defendant, Charles DeLoach, was found not guilty at the direction of the court.

Unless deferred at the request of the defense, sentence will be passed tomorrow. A motion for a new trial will be made. The verdict finds the five individual defendants guilty on the first and second counts of the indictment. The third count was ordered stricken out in the early stages of the trial.

The first and second counts charge the defendants with conspiring to monopolize inter-State trade.

The jury does not mention either of the indicted corporations, the American Naval Stores Co., and the National Transportation and Teminal Co.

The surprise the verdict caused in the court room and in Savannah was complete. It was generally believed that a verdict would favor the defense and that if it did not a recommendation to the mercy of the court would be made. The maximum sentence is a fine of $5,000 and a term of one year in prison.

Except for the charge of Judge Sheppard, who was comprehensive, the day was given up to the argument of Assistant District Attorney Alex. Akerman, who spoke first for the prosecution, Judge Samuel B. Adams and Gen. P. W. Meldrim, for the defense, and Attorney Toomer, of Jacksonville, who closed for the prosecution. Each side was allowed three hours.

Why Is Sugar Sweet?

If sugar did not dissolve in the mouth you could not taste the sweet. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC is as strong as the strongest bitter tonic, but you do not taste the bitter because the ingredients do not dissolve in the mouth, but do dissolve readily in the acids of the stomach. Is just as good for Grown People as for Children. The First and Original Tasteless Chill Tonic. The Standard for 30 years, 50c.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

DEFUNCT GREENSBORO BANK

Bill In Equity Filed Seeking to Recover $200,000.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Greensboro, N. C., May 10.—Christopher L. Williams, receiver of the City National Bank, today filed in the United States Court here a bill in equity against the directors of the defunct bank seeking to recover $200,000 the amount the bank is alleged to have lost through the negligence of the defendants.

In New York yesterday John Carrel, of Miami, Fla., a former New York police office, who after 25 years service, went to Florida, and eventually became treasurer of that State, was stricken with heart disease here today, and removed to a hospital. He arrived in this city today from the South, and was in conversation with Mr. Voorhis, who, as police commissioner, had appointed him to the force, when he was stricken. At the hospital it was stated that he will recover.

The opponents of the measure to re-establishing racing at Hot Springs, Okla., were successful yesterday in keeping the House operating under a suspension of the rules throughout the day and as a result the bill was not called up. The bill has passed the Senate.

Backache and severe pains in my kidneys bothered me for a long time. I also had headaches, my eyes pained me and I felt generally miserable. When Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me, I procured a box from Robert R. Bellamy's drug store and used them as directed. They stopped the backache and headaches and acted as a tonic to my system."
